VERDICT PART FOUR
As to Punitive Damages

We, the jury, find, by clear and convincing evidence, that defendants' actions showed willful misconduct or that entire want of care which would raise the presumption of conscious indifference to the consequences and that punitive damages should be awarded.

-OR-

We, the jury, do not find that there is clear and convincing evidence that defendants' actions showed willful misconduct or that entire want of care which would raise the presumption of conscious indifference to the consequences, and no punitive damages should be awarded.
